Approaches

to Learning and Executive Functioning

1 Self-regulation/ Inhibitory control P4.2.1

1 Control Impulses P4.2.1.1

- 1 Avoids imitating the negative behavior of peers with minimal prompting from adults. P4.2.1.1.1
- 2 More reliably controls impulses during structured activities that are familiar (e.g., raising a hand to talk). P4.2.1.1.2
- 3 Can play the role of a teacher in a game, monitor other children's behavior, and remind them to follow the rules. P4.2.1.1.3
- 4 Sometimes able to resist habits when they are no longer appropriate (e.g., may remember while walking to the bathroom that the paper towels have moved and adjust accordingly). P4.2.1.1.4
- 5 Able to play games like Red Light, Green Light that require waiting for a signal to act, with adult support. P4.2.1.1.5

2 Resist Temptation P4.2.1.2

- 1 Independently waits for an object without grabbing most of the time. P4.2.1.2.1
- 2 Able to take turns with preferred toys or classroom materials (e.g., waits for an object without grabbing, with minimal prompting). P4.2.1.2.2
- 3 Can wait for a highly desired food or object, though may occasionally need reminders. P4.2.1.2.3

3 Refrains from emotional outbursts and unsafe behaviors P4.2.1.3

- 1 Learns coping strategies (e.g., using words, pretend play, drawing) to establish greater control and competence in managing intense emotions (e.g., after going to the emergency room, a child may repeatedly play out the experience with dolls and stuffed animals) resist impulses to harm self, others, or property. P4.2.1.3.1

4 Attentiveness – Resists distraction to maintain focus on tasks of interest to the child P4.2.1.4

- 1 Increases ability to ignore distractions and sustain attention on topics of interest (e.g., can focus on a drawing even when other children are nearby; might say, "I'll play with you later. I want to finish this."). P4.2.1.4.1
- 2 Capable of sustaining focus on longer-term or complex projects with support from an adult. P4.2.1.4.2

5 Attentiveness – Resists distraction to maintain focus on tasks set by someone else P4.2.1.5

- 1 Remains on task during a teacher-set activity for short periods despite distractions, with minimal prompting from adults (e.g., can ignore nearby activities and maintain focus on a teacher-directed small group activity). P4.2.1.5.1
- 2 May need a reminder to return to an earlier task after an interruption. P4.2.1.5.2
