

Grades K, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12

Adopted 2009

By speaking, writing or signing, students will express themselves in a culturally-appropriate manner for many purposes.

1: By speaking, writing or signing, students will express themselves in a culturally-appropriate manner for many purposes.

By listening, observing, reading and discussing, students will comprehend and interpret oral, written and visual messages on a variety of topics

2: By listening, observing, reading and discussing, students will comprehend and interpret oral, written and visual messages on a variety of topics

Students will understand the relationship between language and culture.

3: Students will understand the relationship between language and culture.

Students will develop an understanding of other cultures, including such elements as their value systems, languages, traditions and individual perspectives.

4: Students will develop an understanding of other cultures, including such elements as their value systems, languages, traditions and individual perspectives.

Students will understand how language works.

5: Students will understand how language works.

Students will use the language studied to reinforce and expand

6: Students will use the language studied to reinforce and expand knowledge of other disciplines.

knowledge of other disciplines.

Students will use the language studied for personal enjoyment, personal enrichment and employability.

7: Students will use the language studied for personal enjoyment, personal enrichment and employability.